

EXPRESSIONS WITH "time" to be	ahead of time	in advance, before the set time as time goes by	as (the) time passes to be	behind the times	to be old-fashioned; have ideas that are out of date by that time	similar to 'before then'. at some time before the present moment (a specific time). by the time	before reaching the time when something happens (with no specific time mentioned) by this time	similar to 'before now'. to	do/serve time	to spend time in prison as a convict an	egg-timer

	extra time	played in football after 90m when teh scores are level for the time being	for the moment; temporarily good timing	happening at a propitious moment to	have the time of your life	enjoy yourself very much to be	high time	past the appropriate time to be	in the nick of time/	at the last minute, before it's too late to be	in time	before an event takes place to be	just in time	a very short time before an event takes place to	keep time	to make a record of the time passed / to be ON time to	lose track of time	to forget what the time is because one is so engrossed to	make time	to find the time to do something to	make up for lost time	to catch up on a schedule after some delay to be a	matter of time	not long before something happens no time like the present	now is the best time to be	on time	at the scheduled time once upon a time	in the distant past (used to start a fairy-story) to be	out of time	to be invalid - too late overtime	extra hours worked to	pass the time	occupy yourself while waiting to be	pressed for time	need to hurry a	race against time	have to work quickly to get something done before a set time to	run out of time	have no time left to	save time	do something the quickest way to be	short of time	not have much time to	spend time	pass time doing something to	stand the test of time	something still found valuable and useful after many years time after time	do something again and again; repeatedly time and a half	extra money paid for overtime time flies	time goes by or passes very quickly.
	time is money	time should not be wasted because you could be using it to earn money. the	time is ripe	a suitable time to do something time will tell	only in the future will the result be known timely	at a good moment/at the right time/in time a	timer	a device for timing something a	timing-chain	in a car engine two-timing	cheating in marriage a	waste of time	spend too much time on something pointless or useless to	waste time	spend too much time on something