

Sentence Building ..... Rewrite these groups of sentences into no more than TWO.

- Driving a sports car can be fun.
- It is very expensive.

- The cost of maintenance is high.
- Insurance premiums are twice as much as for a family car.

- Reading is a favourite pastime for thousands of people.
- An avid reader learns a lot.
- An avid reader can escape the realities of daily life.

- Reading a good novel can take you to far away places.
- It can introduce you to new experiences.

- Some television programs are specifically made for children
- These are good educational tools.
- Children can learn many things.

- These include three R's They also include the marvellous wonders of the world.
- Social customs, habits, and beliefs are also easily conveyed to children through TV.

- There are many benefits from having a pet.
- Children can learn to be responsible.
- Responsibility is learned
- The child has to feed and water the pet.

- They must watch out for illness or injury.
- They can play with their pet.
- Playing with their pet provides hours of companionship and fun.