

You'll have to make do with what you've got

Read a phrase from column A or B to your partner.

He or she must repeat it, putting "I'm going to ..." and then either 'do or 'make' in front ...

MAKE		DO
1	a new will	1	better next time
2	some business contacts	2	the beds
3	a cake	3	my best
4	a clean break	4	the cleaning
5	a cup of tea	5	some exercises
6	a definite booking for the opera	6	the gardening
7	a down-payment on a new car	7	a good job
8	a dress	8	my homework
9	an exception in this case	9	the housework
10	an excuse about the delivery	10	whatever I can to help
11	a final decision	11	well in this job
12	a fresh start	12	the washing
13	a fuss about this decision	13	some physical exercise
14	a good impression on the boss	14	the accounts
15	a habit of getting up early	15	better next time
16	an important discovery	16	a lot of damage
17	an important speech	17	some repairs
18	a noise	18	some research
19	some plans for the New Year	19	my duty
20	a complaint about the noise	20	something wrong
21	an enquiry	21	you a favour
22	an offer on the house	22	more advertising
23	a request for a loan	23	the shopping
24	lots of money	24	the washing up
25	an appointment	25	some work
26	a forecast on the results	26	my best
27	progress on the project	27	something interesting today
28	an effort to be on time	28	the ironing
29	certain of the time	29	some jobs around the house
30	changes to the plan	30	a lot of business in China
31	an application	31	the most important jobs first
32	an excuse about the meeting	32	too much work
33	a profit on the deal	33	something to help you
34	an apology	34	the best I can
35	a choice of partner	35	some painting
36	a mistake	36	some tidying up
37	a phone call to the bank
38	an attempt to do better
39	a stand against corruption
40	a big profit on the deal
41	it look easy
42	a lot of money this year
43	a mess in the kitchen
44	history with this deal
45	the arrangements for the trip
46	him another offer
47	some rules
48	some sandwiches
49	up my mind
50	a big loss on that deal
51	a mess in the kitchen
52	the beds
53	the best of a bad job
54	hay while the sun shines		