

A little knowledge is a dangerous thing

A bird in the hand
A fool and his money
A friend in need
A leopard
A little knowledge
A miss
A new broom
A poor craftsman
A rose by any other name
A rolling stone
A stitch in time
Absence
Actions
All for one
All that glitters
All work and no play
All's well
An apple a day
Beauty
Better to have loved and lost
Better the devil you know Better late
Better safe
Birds of a feather
Charity
Don't put off till tomorrow
Don't spoil the ship
Don't count your chickens
Don't put all your eggs
Empty vessels
Every cloud
Familiarity Fools rush in Fools seldom
Great minds
(He) who dares,
He who laughs last
He who hesitates
Hell hath no fury
Honesty
Horses
If at first you don't succeed
If it ain't broke It's an ill wind

is worth two in the bush.
are easily parted.
is a friend indeed.
cannot change his spots.
is a dangerous thing.
is as good as a mile.
sweeps clean.
always blames his tools.
would smell as sweet.
gathers no moss.
saves nine.
makes the heart grow fonder.
speak louder than words.
and one for all
is not gold.
makes Jack a dull boy.
that ends well.
keeps the doctor away.
is in the eye of the beholder.
than never to have loved at all.
than the devil you don't.
than never.
than sorry.
flock together.
begins at home.
what you can do today.
for a ha'porth of tar.
until they're hatched..
in one basket.
make the most noise.
has a silver lining.
breeds contempt.
where angels fear to tread.
differ.
think alike.
wins.
laughs longest.
is lost.
like a woman scorned.
is the best policy.
for courses.
try, try, and try again.
don't fix it.
that blows nobody any good.

It's no use crying
Laughter
Let sleeping
Like father
Look before Love makes
Make hay
Many hands
Marry in haste;
Money is the root
Money doesn't Necessity
No news
Once a thief, Once bitten,
One man's meat
One swallow
Out of the frying pan
People who live in glass houses
Prevention
Revenge
Rome
Still waters
Strike
The early bird
The grass is always greener
The heart has reasons
The more
There's many a slip There's no fool
'Tis better to have loved and lost
Too many cooks
Two wrongs
Waste not,
We'll cross that bridge
When in Rome,
Where there's a will,
While the cat's away,
You can't teach an old dog
You can't make a silk purse
You can't have your cake
You can lead a horse to water,
You don't miss the water

over spilt milk.
is the best medicine.
dogs lie.
like son.
you leap.
the world go round.
while the sun shines.
make light work.
repent at leisure.
of all evil.
grow on trees.
is the mother of invention.
is good news.
always a thief.
twice shy.
is another man's poison.
doesn't make summer.
into the fire.
shouldn't throw stones.
is better than cure.
is sweet.
wasn't built in a day.
run deep.
while the iron is hot.
catches the worm.
on the other side.
which reason does not know.
the merrier.
'twixt cup and lip.
like an old fool.
than never to have loved at all.
spoil the broth.
don't make a right.
want not.
when we come to it-
do as the Romans do.
there's a way.
the mice will play.
new tricks.
out of a sow's ear.
and eat it.
but you cannot make him drink.
till the well runs dry.
