

Relative Pronouns and Quantifiers 2

- | | |
|--|---|
| 1 He made a lot of jokes in his speech. Very few of them made anyone laugh. | 1 He made a lot of jokes in his speech, very few of which made anyone laugh. |
| 2 California has a lot of visitors. Most of them visit Disneyland. | 2 California has a lot of visitors, most of whom visit Disneyland. |
| 3 Walt Disney was devoted to his children. They all in turn adored their father. | 3 Walt Disney was devoted to his children, all of whom in turn adored their father. |
| 4 Sleeping Beauty's Castle is all half scale. It is located in Fantasy Land. | 4 Sleeping Beauty's Castle, all of which is half-scale, is located in Fantasy Land. |
| 5 Disney fans all praised his projects. Mr Disney met many of them personally. | 5 Disney fans, many of whom Mr Disney met personally, all praised his projects. |
| 6 I often listen to the Beatles. Most of their songs became worldwide hits. | 6 I often listen to the Beatles, most of whose songs became worldwide hits. |
| 7 I have a few good friends. I am happy to include you among them. | 7 I have a few good friends, among whom I am happy to include you. |
| 8 We surveyed several plots of land. None of them were in any way suitable. | 8 We surveyed several plots of land, none of which were in any way suitable. |
| 9 We carried out many experiments. Few of them were successful. | 9 We carried out many experiments, few of which were successful. |
| 10 Shakespeare wrote many plays. All of them have been studied for centuries. | 10 Shakespeare wrote many plays, all of which have been studied for centuries. |
| 11 The police arrested a group of men. Some of them were drunk. | 11 The police arrested a group of men, some of whom were drunk. |
| 12 She had a large collection of books. Most of their covers needed repair. | 12 She had a large collection of books, most of whose covers needed repair. |
| 13 There's a woman on the phone. You met her husband at the conference. | 13 There's a woman on the phone whose husband you met at the conference. |
| 14 There's a man over there. I went to university with his son. | 14 There's a man over there whose son I went to university with. |
| 15 That man over there has six sons. All of them have qualified as doctors. | 15 That man over there has six sons, all of whom have qualified as doctors. |
| 16 He made about 50 films. I've seen nearly all of them. | 16 He made about 50 films, nearly all of which I've seen. |
| 17 I've made a lot of money in my time. Most of it I've wasted. | 17 I've made a lot of money in my time, most of which I've wasted. |
| 18 There's a wood over there. Through it runs a path to the village. | 18 There's a wood over there through which runs a path to the village. |
| 19 It's a beautiful village. In its middle there is a duckpond. | 19 It's a beautiful village in the middle of which there is a duckpond. |
| 20 It's an interesting problem. Philosophers have struggled with it for millennia. | 20 It's an interesting problem which philosophers have struggled with for millennia.
It's an interesting problem with which philosophers have struggled for millennia. |
| 21 There were 200 mathematicians at the conference. I knew a few of them. | 21 There were 200 mathematicians at the conference, a few of whom I knew. |
| 22 The meeting threw up many ideas. None of them came to fruition. | 22 The meeting threw up many ideas, none of which came to fruition. |
| 23 I've had several computers in my time. Most of them failed after three years. | 23 I've had several computers in my time, most of which failed after three years. |
| 24 There were three boys in the shop. I recognized the tallest one. | 24 There were three boys in the shop, the tallest of whom I recognized. |
| 25 Beethoven wrote 5 piano concertos. The last one was called "The Emperor". | 25 Beethoven wrote 5 piano concertos, the last of which was called "The Emperor". |
| 25 There were many famous Greek mathematicians. One of the most famous was Pythagoras. | 25 There were many famous Greek mathematicians, one of the most famous of whom was Pythagoras. |
| 26 Henry VIII had six wives. The second one had her head chopped off. | 26 Henry VIII had six wives, the second of whom had her head chopped off. |
| 27 Da Vinci made many drawings. A good number of them survive to this day. | 27 Da Vinci made many drawings, a good number of which survive to this day. |
| 28 My Dad painted hundreds of pictures. Hardly any of them are worth 10 cents. | 28 My Dad painted hundreds of pictures, hardly any of which are worth 10 cents. |
| 30 My brother married a girl called Mary. One of her brothers was an army general. | 30 My brother married a girl called Mary, one of whose brothers was an army general. |