

What's wrong here then?

A Describe the picture. What's going on? Who is doing what?

B Give your partner ONE of these words. He or she must make up and SAY a sentence with them:

burglar	pram	fishing	wheels
pic-nic	row	lion	bare feet
shoes	tree	funny hat	ice-cream

C Rearrange these words into meaningful sentences:

- 1 things people funny doing of are are lots there who
- 2 hasn't a wheels that car there's any got
- 3 with man lion there's walking a who's a
- 4 burglars police-station there are are two a policeman who into the taking
- 5 shoes a who's little different there's wearing boy
- 6 pushing pram a there's mother in baby his a who's
- 7 fishing road man in a there's who's the
- 8 road who's there's a a rowing man the boat across
- 9 growing there's that's middle a road in tree the the of
- 10 road having lady picnic there's a who's the a in

D Look around the room you are in and/or think about your school or home.

Then say what there is or isn't! Try to write at least FIVE sentences.

- Example 1: There's a room in my house which I never go into.
2: There's nobody in our house who likes eating snails.

