

MIXED RELATIVES

Join each pair of sentences by using a relative clause - with or without a pronoun as appropriate:

1. I saw a man. He was riding a bicycle.
2. I noticed a policeman. His uniform was torn.
3. I once lived in a city. There was almost no crime.
4. I'm repairing an old chair. I bought it at the market.
5. I caught sight of a boy. His face was familiar.
6. I can't see the man. You're talking about him.
7. Is that the book? You mentioned it yesterday.
8. I've got a brother. He joined the Foreign Legion.
9. We've got a cat. It's frightened of mice!
10. Can you see that girl? She's crossing the road.
11. There's the man. His son has been arrested.
12. I heard a car. It was coming down the street.
13. Where's that cup of tea? You promised me it.
14. What's the name of that girl? You were talking to her.
15. There's a book in my library. It's 300 years old.
16. I really don't know. Which turning shall I take?
17. There's the woman. Her son's been kidnapped.
18. I've got no idea. What are you talking about?
19. Couldn't you hear that train? It was going by.
20. There isn't a single person. I can't rely on anyone.
21. I couldn't understand. What were you talking about?
22. I didn't realise. He's gone to the states.
23. Didn't you know? Her father's an astronomer?
24. I had no idea. He's done something illegal.
25. I didn't know. She passed the exam.
26. I can't understand it! What are you talking about?
27. Nobody told me. He's gone to the States.
28. I still don't see. What is the problem?
29. Don't you know? How long have they been married?
30. I can't understand. Where have the children gone?
31. I don't know. What do you mean exactly?
32. I've got no idea. Who does this book belong to?
33. I didn't know. She's had an operation.
34. Somebody told me. There's no money left.
35. I can't imagine. How could anyone live like that?
36. Old John is a bit deaf. He didn't hear the train coming.
37. Jack is losing a lot of money. His pigs have got foot and mouth disease.
38. Bill Jones is my new boss. You met him at the conference last week.
39. One of our students is missing in the Alps. She has no mountaineering experience.
40. Jimmy works for a big company. It makes zips and other kinds of fastener.
41. The Joneses are coming to dinner next week. We met them at our holiday hotel last Christmas.
42. I often visit my brother Jack. He lives in Bristol.
43. I often visit my brother in Bristol. That's a city in the South-West of England.
44. He opened the front door. It made a sinister creaking sound.
45. He opened a window. It led onto the terrace.
46. We could see a driver. His car seemed to be out of control.
47. Joe was driving too fast. He seemed to have been drinking.
48. 'The Mousetrap' is the longest-running play in the world. It was first produced in 1953.
49. Trotsky was assassinated in Mexico. Stalin had risen to power with his help.
50. The house was in a valley. A beautiful river flowed through it.