

RELATIVE PRONOUN REVISION B

Read out the two sentences on the left. Your partner must combine them into one. Check his/her responses:

1. I saw a man. He was riding a bicycle.
2. I noticed a policeman. His uniform was torn.
3. I once lived in a city. There was almost no crime.
4. I'm repairing an old chair. I bought it at the market.
5. I caught sight of a boy. His face was familiar.
6. I can't see the man. You're talking about him.
7. Is that the book? You bought it yesterday.
8. I've got a brother. He is in the police force.
9. We've got a cat. It's afraid of mice!
10. Can you see that girl? She's crossing the road.
11. There's the man. His son is in prison.
12. I heard a car. It was coming down the street.
13. Where's that cup of tea? You promised me it.
14. What's the name of that girl? You were talking to her.
15. There's a book in my library. It's 300 years old.
16. I really don't know. Which turning shall I take?
17. There's the woman. Her son is an artist.
18. I've got no idea. What are you talking about?
19. Couldn't you hear that train? It was going by.
20. There isn't a single person. I can't rely on anyone.
21. I didn't understand. What were you talking about?
22. I don't know. Where has he gone?
23. Didn't you know? Her father's a teacher.
24. I had no idea. He can play the piano.
25. I can't understand. What are you talking about?
26. I don't know. What do you mean?
27. I still don't see. What is the problem?
28. I don't know. What shall I do?
29. Don't you know? How long have they been married?
30. I can't understand. Where have the children gone?
31. I don't know. What do you mean exactly?
32. I've got no idea. Who does this book belong to?
33. I can't imagine it. How could anyone live like that?
34. There's no money left. Somebody told me.
35. This is the cat. I bought it at the market yesterday.

*I saw a man (~~who was~~) riding a bicycle.
I noticed a policeman whose uniform was torn.
I once lived in a city where there was almost no crime.
I'm repairing an old chair (which) I bought at the market.
I caught sight of a boy whose face was familiar.
I can't see the man (that) you're talking about.
Is that the book (that/which) you bought yesterday?
I've got a brother who's in the police force.
We've got a cat that's afraid of mice.
Can you see that girl (who's) crossing the road?
That's the man whose son is in prison.
I heard a car (which/that was) coming down the street.
Where's that cup of tea (that/which) you promised me?
What's the name of that girl you were talking to?
There's a book in my library which is 300 years old.
I really don't know which turning to take.
There's the woman whose son is an artist.
I've got no idea what you're talking about.
Couldn't you hear that train (which was) going by?
There isn't a single person (whom/that) I can rely on.
I didn't understand what you were talking about.
I don't know where he has gone.
Didn't you know (that) her father is (was) a teacher?
I had no idea (that) he could play the piano.
I can't understand what you're talking about.
I don't know what you mean.
I still don't see what the problem is.
I don't know what to do.
Don't you know how long they've been married?
I can't understand where the children have gone.
I don't know what you mean exactly.
I've got no idea who that book belongs to.
I can't imagine how anyone could live like that.
Somebody told me there is (was) no money left!
This is the cat (which/that) I bought at the market yesterday.
(words in brackets) shows words which are unnecessary*