

BASIC English language verb revision:

A	Two men _____ following an accident in the city. They _____ on the ring-road when they _____ into a lamppost. One of the men _____ badly injured. Both men _____ escaped criminals and neither of them _____ a driving licence. They _____ going to be _____ tomorrow.	arrest - drive run be - be have question
B	_____ John _____ his homework yet? No, he _____ it at the moment. What about Jane? _____ she _____ hers? Yes, she _____ it this afternoon.	do do do do
C	Cheese _____ at Tillamook for a long time. In fact, cheesemaking _____ there before the last war. Since it _____ over 100,000 tons of cheese _____ there . I _____ to Tillamook three times. I first _____ there with a school group. Then I _____ in 2005 with my family, but I _____ there since.	make start - begin make - go go go - go
D	Jim usually _____ for a walk on Sundays, but today it _____ and so he _____ a Harry Potter book instead. He _____ nearly all the Harry Potter books, but this is the only one he _____. He _____ his first Harry Potter book some years ago when his uncle _____ him one for Christmas.	go - rain read - read read read give
E	_____ you _____ my car keys? Yes, you _____ them in the garden. I _____ them there this morning. _____ you _____ them up? No, I _____ them there!	see leave - see pick leave
F	_____ you _____ the broken window yet? No, I _____. Why not? I _____ time. Well, when _____ you _____ to repair it? When I _____ time!	repair have have go have
G	This room is in a terrible mess. The chairs _____. Rubbish _____ all over the floor. The blackboard _____ cleaned and the windows _____ open. Who _____ in this room last?	put up leave - clean leave - be
H	I _____ for my plane when a man suddenly _____ into the waiting room holding a machine-gun. I _____ myself to the floor and _____ under a chair. Then I _____ shots and loud cries. Then a policeman said: "It's OK. We _____ the man. Everything _____ back to normal."	wait - run throw hide - hear arrest be